A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to prohibiting discrimination on the basis of uniformed service

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 8-101 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended 2 by local law number 1 for the year 2016, is amended to read as follows:

3 In the city of New York, with its great cosmopolitan population, there is no greater 4 danger to the health, morals, safety and welfare of the city and its inhabitants than the existence 5 of groups prejudiced against one another and antagonistic to each other because of their actual or 6 perceived differences, including those based on race, color, creed, age, national origin, alienage
7 or citizenship status, gender, sexual orientation, disability, marital status, partnership status, 8 caregiver status, uniformed service, any lawful source of income, status as a victim of domestic 9 violence or status as a victim of sex offenses or stalking, whether children are, may be or would 10 be residing with a person or conviction or arrest record. The council hereby finds and declares 11 that prejudice, intolerance, bigotry, and discrimination, bias-related violence or harassment and 12 disorder occasioned thereby threaten the rights and proper privileges of its inhabitants and 13 menace the institutions and foundation of a free democratic state. A city agency is hereby created 14 with power to eliminate and prevent discrimination from playing any role in actions relating to 15 employment, public accommodations, and housing and other real estate, and to take other actions 16 against prejudice, intolerance, bigotry, discrimination and bias-related violence or harassment as 17 herein provided; and the commission established hereunder is hereby given general jurisdiction 18 and power for such purposes.
